

INTERNATIONAL ACC MENTOR COACHING

10 Hours of ICF MCS Mentor Coaching — ACC Level

www.baldcoach.com

Target Audience

Professionally trained coaches seeking an ACC (Associate Certified Coach) credential with the ICF — whether you are applying for the first time or renewing your existing ACC credential. The ACC requires mentor coaching for both initial certification and renewal every three years. This programme meets the full 10-hour mentor coaching requirement for both pathways.

Overview Key Benefits

- Establish and sharpen your foundational coaching skills in alignment with the 2024 ICF Core Competencies at ACC level
- Detailed written feedback from an internationally experienced ICF ACC Assessor and MCS-certified Mentor Coach
- Stay current with the ACC Minimum Skills Requirements (MSRs), ACC BARS, and ICF Code of Ethics — essential for both new applicants and renewals
- All sessions individually scheduled around your availability — fully flexible
- Review of 3 coaching recordings, each assessed against the full ICF ACC Session Observation Form and ACC BARS
- Receive a final ICF Competency Review Form summarising your cumulative skill development across all observed sessions
- Language support : English or German

On completion of this programme you will hold all the ICF mentor coaching documentation required to submit your ACC credential application or renewal — including your signed Session Observation Forms and completed Competency Review Form, ready to submit to the ICF.

Content

- In-depth review of the ICF Core Competencies at ACC level, ACC Minimum Skills Requirements (MSRs), ACC BARS, & ICF Code of Ethics
- Review & feedback on 3 coaching audio recordings, each assessed against the full ICF ACC Session Observation Form — rated across all behavioral statements in Competencies 1–8 using the ACC BARS rating scale
- For each recording: evidence-based verbal and written feedback identifying a minimum of 2–3 areas of strength and 2–3 areas for development, with timestamps and specific examples from your session
- Pre- and post-session client reflection prompts for each observed session, supporting your learning and integration between sessions
- Final ICF ACC Competency Review Form completed at the end of the engagement — documenting your cumulative demonstration of coaching skills across all observed sessions
- Supporting learning materials provided throughout
