

INTERNATIONAL PCC MENTOR COACHING

10 Hours of ICF MCS Mentor Coaching — PCC Level

www.baldcoach.com

Target Audience

Professionally trained coaches seeking a PCC (Professional Certified Coach) credential with the ICF via the Portfolio Application Pathway, who have (almost) completed the required 500 coaching practice hours and 125 training hours for PCC level

Overview Key Benefits

- Understand the key differentiating coaching skills between ACC and PCC level
- Detailed written feedback from an internationally experienced ICF PCC Assessor and MCS-certified Mentor Coach
- Stay current with the ICF Core Competencies, PCC Minimum Skills Requirements (MSRs), PCC Markers, and Code of Ethics
- All sessions individually scheduled around your availability — fully flexible
- Review of 3 coaching recordings, each assessed against the full ICF PCC Session Observation Form and PCC Markers
- Receive a final ICF Competency Review Form summarising your cumulative skill development across all observed sessions
- On completion you will have all the ICF mentor coaching documentation required to submit your PCC credential application
- Language support for audio recordings: English or German

On completion of this programme you will hold all the ICF mentor coaching documentation required to submit your PCC credential application — including your signed Session Observation Forms and completed Competency Review Form, ready to submit to the ICF.

Content

- In-depth review of the ICF Core Competencies at PCC level, PCC Minimum Skills Requirements (MSRs), PCC Markers, and ICF Code of Ethics
- Review & feedback on 3 coaching audio recordings, each assessed against the full ICF PCC Session Observation Form — covering all PCC Markers across Competencies 1–8
- For each recording: evidence-based verbal and written feedback identifying a minimum of 2–3 areas of strength and 2–3 areas for development, with timestamps and specific examples from your session
- Pre- and post-session client reflection prompts for each observed session, supporting your learning and integration between sessions
- Final ICF PCC Competency Review Form completed at the end of the engagement — documenting your cumulative demonstration of coaching skills across all observed sessions
- Supporting learning materials provided throughout
